

We operate to an open style and value the contribution of all the members of our group, in particular to..

- Actively support our aims
- Operate a framework of honest and open management, where everyone has a role to play in meeting goals and objectives
- Seek information which can be used to both measure success and reveal where improvements can be made
- Hold a personal commitment to their own continuing development
- In partnership with their employer, develop their skills to be of value to their colleagues and clients
- Believe that training and development is a progressive process that will enable goals to be achieved
- Respond positively to the challenge of change
- Have a positive commitment to team working and value the contribution of all team members
- Demonstrate support for and commitment to, equal opportunities in every respect
- Understand what Total Quality means, so that it becomes the only acceptable way of working
- Have an awareness of and commitment to, providing added value to clients

Our key aims are:

- To support our clients in achieving their goals
- To use our professional skills and unique expertise to provide recruitment, effective training together with personal and corporate development
- To work together and achieve a partnership that is satisfying to all of us

Our methods:

- We rely upon enthusiastic and productive people, who actively and successfully manage change
- By welcoming new ideas and by encouraging and developing our people to use their talents to the full, in support of their colleagues as well as our Clients

Facilities:

- We have a range of rooms and classrooms equipped for computer training, meetings or conferences